

The Flame Lily Foundation

(incorporating the Rhodesia Association of SA)

"Keeping the Flame alive"

The FLF is a South African-registered non-profit organisation with welfare and cultural objects, run for Rhodesians by Rhodesians. We rely entirely on the goodwill of volunteers to achieve our objects and we currently enjoy the direct support of over 2 000 paid-up members in South Africa.

Our principal object is to promote, further and secure the interests of former residents of Rhodesia/Zimbabwe living in South Africa. For example, we publicised the threat made by Robert Mugabe in 1984 to stop payment of pensions to former residents of Rhodesia living in South Africa, thus contributing to abandonment of the threat. Another example is the strong submission made by the FLF to the Broadcasting Complaints Commission against the SABC, thus vindicating former Rhodesian Security Forces who had been falsely accused of carrying out "necklacing" during hostilities in Rhodesia.

We provide affordable accommodation for persons over the age of 60. We have established four homes in Stilfontein (near Klerksdorp in the Northwest Province) to meet the needs of senior citizens. Many Rhodesians have bought affordable houses in Stilfontein as a result of publicity generated by the FLF. We also do what we can to help the aged and the disabled in other ways.

The FLF is intent on preserving the history and heritage of Rhodesia. We want our children and future generations to have access to an accurate record of the Rhodesian era. To this end, we have a reference and film library in Pretoria, and have passed valuable records for long-term preservation to a Museum in the UK. We also promote the dissemination of accurate information of historical significance on Rhodesia. We commemorate events such as the Centenary Celebrations in 1990 and Remembrance Sunday annually to ensure that we do not forget our heritage and those who lost their lives for Rhodesia.

At branch level, we provide members with newsletters and opportunities for social contact.

This enables former residents of Rhodesia to keep in touch and to help one another when the need arises. We value the support of our members, without whom we could not achieve what we have set out to do for the benefit of the Rhodesian community in South Africa.
